Rural Life Conference At Farmville

The Conference begins on the night of November 3rd and continues through November 6th.

The climax of the Conference will come on Saturday, November 5th, when Governor Davis, Hon. H. H. Harts, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. E. C. Lindeman and Mr. Southall Farrar, State District Agent will lead the discussion of Cooperative Marketing and the pressing problems of the farm today.

On Sunday morning Country Religious leaders will conduct special services of the different churches in the town, and a Country Church program will be given Sunday afternoon in the Normal School auditorium, while music by the Normal School girls and Hampden Sidney boys will be a feature of the evening service in the auditorium.

Rev. Raymond Rankin, Country Church leader, Dr. W. J. Campbell and Rev. J. E. Montgomery will be among the speakers on the Rural Church.

Those wishing to make arrangements for hotel rooms should write Miss Florence Stubbs, Farmville, Va. The farmers and farm women of Prince Edward, Buckingham, Cumberland, Amelia, Charlotte, Appomattox, Lunenburg and Notaway counties are urged to be on hand for one or all days of this Conference, to help in the solution of those problems for which the meetings have been called.

Buckingham

The low price of corn is disturbing Virginia farmers just now; and old corn is being sold as low as 50c a bushel. On the Lynchburg market I was told that tobacco that is of good quality is going to sell well.

The death of Mr. W. R. Moore which took place last week caused surprise and sorrow here where he was well known. Miss Minnie Wood and Miss Gertrude Saddle visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Baird last Saturday.

Mrs. Myra Ellis left last week for her home in Alabama.

There will be a meeting of the farmers of this county to see after their interests in marketing their tobacco crops. The School Board of Mayville District has purchased the interest in the Maysons owned in the school building now being used as an agricultural school here. There is the largest enrollment of pupils at the high school here that has ever been made in the history of the school.

"Sow in dust and reap we must" this is an old saying and mighty little grain has been sown in Virginia this time that was not sown in dust.

A trip of 100 miles through Southwest Virginia last week took me through some of the finest grain and grass land in the State and I found that farmers were well up with their work despite the severe and prolonged drought.

A great number of coal miners came here to their homes last week after waiting at the mines for work to brighten up. When these men could get work they made from five to ten dollars a day, but they say they returned to get to work here if they do not get more than one dollar a day.

I wish some wealthy man or woman would buy my mahogany bed room suit.

See about your seed corn and keep the rats and weevil out. I sold one man 540 pounds of peas.

Don't forget Nov. 3rd and 4th is the time set for the County and School Fair.

Notice To Trespassers.

All persons are warned not to hunt, fish or trespass in any manner upon the lands of the following persons, under penalty of being prosecuted to the full extent of the law: John T. Cole, two miles southeast Appomattox, Va.
A. H. Clement, near Appomattox, Va.
(Persons desiring to give notice to trespassers may do so under this head for 50 cents. Send name and position, and your name will be printed 3 months for 50 cents.) We also furnish cards for posting at five cents each.

East-Fox

On Thursday, October 20th, a very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized in Emporia, Va., when Miss Dorothy Rue Fox and Mr. Henry Shelton East were united in marriage.

The home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Fox, was the scene of the wedding. In the spacious drawing room, tastefully decorated with ferns, palms and cut flowers in profusion amid relatives and friends the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Parlett East, pastor of Liberty Baptist church, Appomattox, Va.

The bride is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Fox. Mr. Fox is a prominent merchant of Emporia. The groom is the eldest son of Rev. and Mrs. H. Parlett East.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for Washington, D. C., Baltimore and other points. Upon their return they will reside in Lynchburg, where the groom has accepted a position with the Rivermont Pharmacy.

Armistice Day—November 11, 1921

Whereas, It is fitting that the people of Virginia, in accordance with the proclamation of the President of the United States, observe the third anniversary of the signing of the Armistice on November 11, 1918, which brought the World War to an end, as a means of expressing our appreciation for the heroic services of those who fought overseas; and

Whereas, Under authority of an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, approved February 20, 1918, any day which is designated by the Governor as desirable to be observed as a holiday because of conditions incident to a state of war shall be considered as a public holiday; now

Therefore, I, Westmoreland Davis, Governor of Virginia, do designate Friday, November 11th, 1921, a public holiday to be observed as such as provided by law throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia, and to be known as Armistice Day.

The S. S. picnic at Central church last Saturday was well attended and plenty to eat, but we don't know how full the pocket books were. Everybody was asked to bring their pocket books as they want to get up money to paint the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pugh of Charlottesville and Mrs. Fenna Marshall were week end guests at the home of Mr. T. H. Ford. Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Woodruff and children, of Lynchburg, visited their father, Mr. Thomas Nash a few days ago. Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Simms and daughter, Myrtle, of Evergreen, spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. R. W. Martin.

Miss Annie Martin after spending a month with friends and relatives will leave today for her home at Drewry's Bluff, Va.

Misses Haar entertained a number of their friends last Friday night in the home of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Bubba and the latter's friend, Miss Heirman, all of Penn. The bride being a niece of the Misses Haar. They were entertained with music, games, etc.

Mr. Luther Foster is improving enough to be taken to the Harvey Store at Spring Mill last Saturday. Miss Nellie the teacher at Wesley Chapel, spent last Sunday with Miss Estelle Woodruff.

Mr. Henry Tassler is improving after a severe spell of stomach trouble.

Several in the neighborhood have shaken out their corn. Very good crops considering the season.

"Comrades of the Confederacy"

Hark ye Comrades of the land,
Hark to the strains of the Dixie Band
Laid to the tune of drum and fife
The cannon's roar, the noise and strife
The colors flying, the yells of cheer
The Captain's valor you loved to hear
Again the bugle calls as then
The South's valiant men
Held the command to fall in line
Into the ranks so thinned by time
Put on your uniforms of gray
As you did, how gliding days
Then round the camp-fire, gather at last
To talk of the old days that are gone and past
The days when Lee fought a fight so true
T'isting in God, his south and you
His name with us it will abide
And in his radiance, heavenly light
Let's all be glad, for we can't help but
Sing, there's another, Stonewall Jackson
Whom we know
The Lee has been crossed, with counties
Well back the bugles calling, we city ones
Again assemble for the roll-call, we want to Count our men.

THE WORLD'S BIGGEST JOB—AND ITS SCOPE

Every year the Presidency of the United States grows more important, until now it is recognized as the biggest job in the world. Yet few people realize that the president is not chosen by a majority vote and that several of our presidents have not been the most popular choice of all the people. This fact is clearly discussed in the story of the Presidency, one of the series of articles on Our Government, which we are issuing monthly.

If you are not receiving this material, drop in and let us add your name to the list of those to whom we are sending it each month.

Many of our friends ask us why we put forth such efforts as we do to get small accounts. Many of which are started with deposits of only one dollar. It is true that such accounts do not begin to repay the cost of handling.

However, we are building for the future. These small accounts will grow. Many of them will in time become very profitable. The small depositor of today will be the large depositor of tomorrow. The boy who opens the dollar savings account will in a few years be the business man with a valuable commercial account.
